Modernist Cuisine: I'm God and You're Not

The Accidental Locavore guesses that if you write a $625 cookbook (Modernist Cuisine), it's only natural that when you go on the road to promote it, you charge everyone $25 to attend. And I suppose there are people who really do care that there are x-number of words, 2400 pages spanning six volumes, that the ink added something like five pounds per book and other trivia

(Trivial Pursuit: Modernist Cuisine Edition, anyone?).

Rockefeller Center? Fuhgettaboudit! Holiday Light Tour in Brooklyn

The Accidental Locavore was looking for a good way to get in a holiday mood and found it with a Slice of Brooklyn's Christmas Lights & Cannoli Tour! Tony, who I met on my crazy week, was kind enough to invite me to come along. If you need a jump-start to feel that holiday spirit (and Black Friday doesn't do it for you, either) jump on the bus and explore a section of Brooklyn where they say fuhgettaboudit to electric bills and carbon footprints!
