Dear Friend,

Monday being a holiday meant I took the day off and posted my tips for shopping a farmers' market. Remember; no corn shucking!

This week's recipe is a great summer one with caramelized peaches you can serve with ice cream or biscuits for a wonderful shortcake.

Veggies from my CSA share are the stars of the July calendar. Click here (and right click on the image) to add it to your desktop.

10 Things NOT to do at a Farmers' Market

It's getting to be peak farmers' market season. The Accidental Locavore thought it was a good time to re-run one of your favorite posts.

During the taping of a cooking show I was talking to a couple of farmers who have been at the various farmers' markets for years.

They've witnessed a lot.

Drunks, dogs and kids all run amuck.

Women with cigarettes demanding to know if the produce is organic.

They've seen it all. Read more:

Caramelized Peaches

Do you have recipes that you've used a lot in the past and then somehow they get lost in the shuffle?

For the Accidental Locavore, it's often a combo of the thrill of the new along with some old favorites that push the good-but-not-part-of-the-repertoire aside. Get the recipe:
