Gone Hunting: In Search of (Elusive) Truffles

There were so many great experiences that the Accidental Locavore had in Croatia, but one of the it-probably-only-exists-in-your-fantasies ones was the morning we got to go hunting for truffles. Read more:

Chile Cherry Tomato Salad

The Accidental Locavore first saw this salad being made years ago on Martha Stewart. The film producer Ismail Merchant was showing Martha how to put it together. What made it particularly memorable was watching Martha struggling to control herself as Ismail was literally pouring on the cayenne. In her recipe, his quarter cup got cut down to a quarter teaspoon. Either way, it's a great use for a box of cherry tomatoes – good now and better in August! Get the recipe:
