Four Reasons I've had Oysters on my Mind

The Accidental Locavore has had oysters on the brain for several reasons. First, I had some amazing oysters recently at a place I hadn't been in years – the Oyster Bar at Grand Central. I owe a big thanks to my friend Donna for suggesting a drink there recently. I had some Totten Virginicas oysters that have quickly vaulted to #1 on my oyster list! Sweet and meaty, they're only available for a few months according to our server, so get out there soon and check them out, then thank me!

A Simple Marinade Recipe for Lamb or Chicken

Escaping the cold, the Accidental Locavore is hiding out in Palm Springs, California. Besides the great weather, there is the added advantage of a backyard full of lemons, grapefruit and rosemary. I bought some lamb chops to stick on the grill and then, spying the rosemary hedge, thought a simple marinade was in order. This is pretty improvisational, so feel free to add and subtract what you want. I like to add balsamic vinegar as it seems to have a tenderizing effect on the meat.
