Accidentallocavore®

Dear Friend,

Big newsletter this week! A trip to the French Cheese Board's pop-up shop and what I did with some of their wonderful cheese. Pull out your calendars, there are two more scheduled before the holidays! My first piece on France Today's website and a Kickstarter campaign for some great new lids from GIF along with an interesting cake for the November calendar.

Why don't you invite your friends to sign up for the newsletter? My goal is to double the readership, so if everyone reading this can get a friend to sign up...Or you can click the icons above the logo to send to a friend, Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn.

Enjoy!

Discovering Cheese Heaven

There's a place in Paris that the Accidental Locavore's husband used to refer to as shoe heaven and I always said, "if it was really shoe heaven, all the shoes would be free." Well, the other day, I may have stumbled into cheese heaven.

(Not Really) Potato Salad, but Better! Way Better!

As prep for a visit to the pop-up shop at the French Cheese Board, the Accidental Locavore was looking at the recipes on their website and came across this one for what they call "Warm Potato Salad With Raclette." It looked easy and delicious so I gave it a try the other night.

GIR Lids on Kickstarter

I was luck enough to get a set of these in my favorite red to test out, and love them! There are six other colors available if red's not your thing. Click here to back them and get your holiday shopping done before Halloween. Because they've already made their goals, there are added goodies if you help them make their "stretch" goals. That's a treat!
