Accidental Locavore: Top 6 Blog Posts for 2012

Tis the season for year-end round up lists and The Accidental Locavore is as lazy good at lists as anyone else. So, here are the top six blog posts for 2012, based on very little scientific research. Some of them were the most commented on, others were the most clicked on. If your favorite didn't make the list, comment below.

Feast of the Seven Bacons: Pasta Carbonara Recipe

For whatever reason, the Accidental Locavore's family doesn't have much of a Christmas Eve tradition. There were years when people went to midnight mass and other years when we'd go to friends for oyster stew and wonderful desserts, but there were never hard and fast rules for the night before Christmas. So I was a little amused when a friend asked if we were doing the Feast of the Seven Fishes this year. "No, actually we're doing the Feast of the Seven Bacons."
