Dear Friend,

If you missed the big pig here last weekend, here's a look at it. A traditional wedge salad gets a great update-and it's easy!

I bet you have at least one friend who would enjoy this newsletter. It's easy to sign up here. Or you can click the icons to send to a friend, Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn.

Enjoy!

A Big Pig (Roast)

If you've ever been to a pig roast, you know it's always a great feast with a golden brown pig taking center stage! Center stage in this case was a very large grill where the pig was perfectly roasted for hours until it was falling off the bone tender. Read more:

A New Take on an Old Classic – The Wedge Salad

The Accidental Locavore came across this new idea for the classic iceberg wedge. This wedge is cabbage and it's sweet and delicious, roasted or grilled. Make the dressing ahead of time and refrigerate for up to a week, if you like. Serves 4: Get the recipe:
