Will Write for Cheese: The Accidental Locavore Helps Birth a Cheese

Last week, the Accidental Locavore got a phone call naming me one of the select group to help Point Reyes Farmstead develop their next cheese masterpiece. Now a member of the "Birth of a Cheese" tasting panel, the Locavore will be able put her years of eating cheese to good use! The first sample was delicious. Praising it highly would be easy, however tricky, because getting boxes of great cheese delivered to your doorstep is about as good as "work" can possibly get (I don't want to cut my potential supply short). When the box was opened, the first thing I noticed...

The Accidental Locavore: Recipe for Blue Cheese Compound Butter

As an official cheese taster for Point Reyes Farmstead, the Accidental Locavore was tasked to find food (and drink) pairings for the test cheese. We happened to be grilling a beautiful tri-tip that was aged for us by the local butcher; Quattros. While the meat was on the grill the locavore had the idea to try a compound butter with the blue cheese. It's an easy thing to do and gives great flavor to meats and vegetables.
