Back In Business With a New Farm Box!

You know that old saying about one door closing*? After going through the six phases of grief (five, plus I added one: blogging), the Accidental Locavore found the perfect solution to the weekly farm box, CSA, self-shopping dilemma, almost literally on her doorstep.

The World's Best Hot Dogs?

Trying to figure out a solution to the farm closing. First up, a trip to the Union Square Greenmarket, with a hugely optimistic idea that there would be cherries. No such luck, but found some new-to-me, spotted romaine lettuce from Eckerton Hill Farms. It was so pretty that it's the June calendar photo (see below). At the Millbrook Farmers' Market I found what may be the world's best hot dogs.
