Grilling Everything: What Works, What Doesn't

Like bacon going with everything, there are people out there who believe that grilling is the answer to all food preparation. While the Accidental Locavore loves not having to scrub pans, some things (like the grilled Caesar salad) are surprisingly tasty, some are not really worth grilling, and others are just fun to toss on if you've got a fire going. In honor of Labor Day, I decided to grill a couple of things I was curious about, lemons for a vinaigrette, and avocados.

Best Sweets From Surprising Sources

Readers familiar with the Accidental Locavore know that I'd much sooner write about (almost any) cheese and usually am a little lax on the sweeter segment of the food chain. Recently, I've had some awfully good sweets from unexpected sources.
