Dear Friend,

If you're over 21, will you please vote for my friend Robert Wright? He's a finalist in the Bombay Sapphire Artisan Series. The painting is Arney Run and you can vote every day. This week, soup and more soup: a fun fundraiser (yes, they do exist) and a recipe.

Soup-A-Bowl: A Fun Fundraiser!

Don't you think it's really hard to come up with a clever, fun, fundraising event? Like the Accidental Locavore, you probably just show up at most of them to show support for whoever you know who ended up on the board, right? It was with that kind of initial reluctance that we gave up a recent Sunday afternoon to show our support to the Poughkeepsie Farm Project, our CSA.

Winter Squash Soup

Maybe you've wondered how someone could be an Accidental Locavore and not have pages and pages of recipes for winter squash. It's pretty simple. While an occasional serving of squash is fine for the most part, it's around way too long (seasonally) and not terribly interesting. An occasional bowl of soup or a simple roasted preparation and I'm good until the asparagus comes up. But since it wouldn't be fall without a bowl of soup, here's the one winter squash recipe I come back to time after time. Soup:
