Dear Friend,

Wandering north on the Taconic, I stopped in Chatham to check out a new café and pie company. Sweet.

Since I thought we'd lost our dogwood in the March storms, I'll let it be the calendar photo for May. Download the May calendar and use it as your desktop wallpaper.

Wouldn't your food loving friends like to get a treat every Tuesday? Forward this to them and they can sign up for the newsletter. Or click the icons above to send to a friend, share on Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn.

Enjoy!

Pieconic: Pies and More at Main Street Goodness

Pies.

Isn't that the first thing that comes to mind when you're a globe-trotting executive looking for a new career?

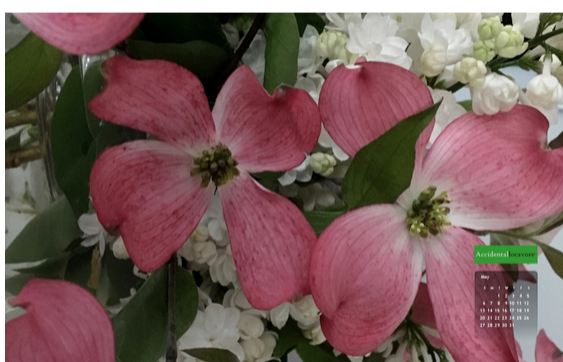

Pies.

It was one of the first things that came to Christopher Knable's mind when he was far from home. In fact, he started baking pies overseas when he got homesick.

He got such satisfaction from baking pies and such a good reception for them that he decided to start his own bakery when he came back state-side.

I thought this dogwood was a goner after the winter, but our tree guy saved it!

Here's to spring (finally)!
