Dear Friend,

It's time for Slow Food Hudson Valley's annual Snout to Tail event. Get the details below.

My lookback this week, with a wink at the Slow Food event, is a lamb tagine, that is just wonderful!

Finally time for some flowers! These great tulips were from a recent local flower show. Aren't they fabulous? Click to make them your computer wallpaper.

Wouldn't your food loving friends like to get a treat every Tuesday? Forward this to them and they can sign up for the newsletter. Or click the icons above to send to a friend, share on Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn.

Enjoy!

Slow Food Hudson Valley Presents: The Fifth Annual Snout to Tail

This year Slow Food Hudson Valley's 5th Annual Snout to Tail event takes on a whole new look. Instead of being a two-day event, it's a much more accessible one day experience.

Look forward to "some of the best lamb I have ever consumed" according to Slow Food Hudson Valley's Co-Chair Rich Vergili.

Lamb Tagine with Apricots

This lamb tagine came about because a recent special from Barb's Butchery landed us with a nice package of lamb stew. Turned out to be beautiful meat--tender and flavorful and made this a terrific dish.
